

It is intolerable that the FCC could find that it is the right and privilege of any business ,that I have done business with resently,to use my telephone number to call me at their wim.